Session Descriptions

Demonstrating PA Value

Tricia Marriott, PA-C, MPAS, MJ, CHC, DFAAPA

As leaders, PAs must be ready to articulate the business case for the workforce they represent. Calculating the contributions to an organization include the financial, quality, access and operational benefit.

Managing Change in the Ever-Changing Healthcare Environment

Andrew Turcak, MHS, MBA, PA-C

It is the elephant in the room and no one likes it, and it's even harder to manage...CHANGE. This presentation will help provide insight and tools around helping clinicians and leaders lead through change management. Pearls will be shared around how to successfully lead groups of people through the ever-changing healthcare environment.

KEYNOTE:

Leadership and Laughter – Creating Light, Laughter and Community

Regina Barreca, Author, Educator and Humorist

Humor is an essential, sometimes life-saving often sanity saving art and skill when facing the most complex parts of life professional and personally. The generous perspectives of useful humor can allow us to re-group, re-imagine and regain perspective.

Succession Planning

Jason Prevelige, DMSc, MBA, PA-C, DFAAPA

Finding leaders is a common challenge among organizations, taking proactive steps to ensure a succession plan can help group your organizations human resources and significantly reduce the stress that comes with the yearly election process for many groups.

Panel of Achievement: Stories of Chapter Successes

Panel Discussion

Share in the discussion of chapter successes.

Learn from chapter leaders the triumphs, the hurdles and how to strengthen your chapter

Rapid Fire: Idea Exchange

Moderated

Spend this time-sharing ideas of what works and what doesn't. Planning events, non-dues revenue, increasing membership, etc. Let's dive in and help each other grow.
